Case No. 15-cv-00631-TCK-FHM
 Judge: Hon. Terence C. Kern

JOINT RESPONSE TO LEES PARTIES’ SALE OBJECTION

Plaintiff Fifth Third Bank (“Plaintiff”) and C. David Rhoades (“Receiver”) hereby file this Joint Response to the Objection [Dkt. No. 60] filed on April 5, 2016, by the Lees Parties to the Plaintiff’s and the Receiver’s Joint Motion for Authority to Sell Assets to Stalking Horse Bidder Subject to Higher Offers and Notice to File Objections filed on March 1, 2016 [Dkt. No. 27] (the “Sale Motion”).

1. Following the filing of the Sale Motion and the Objection, the Receiver and counsel for the Lees Parties visited the stores and inspected the assets that the Lees Parties claim to own in Section III of the Objection (the “Disputed Assets”). Following such inspection, the parties agreed that the Disputed Assets would not be sold through the proposed sale and shall remain with the real estate.

2. As set forth in the Sale Motion, the Receiver and Fifth Third believe the Restrictive

Covenants (as defined in the Objection) may be assigned to the purchaser without requiring the purchaser to assume the entire underlying agreement. The Receiver and Fifth Third reserve all of their rights to address this issue at the hearing on the sale.

WHEREFORE, Fifth Third and the Receiver will respectfully request this Court at the hearing on the sale to enter an order approving the sale to the highest and best bidder, determined at the auction, the terms of which bid shall be presented to the Court at the sale hearing.

DATED this 12th day of April, 2016.

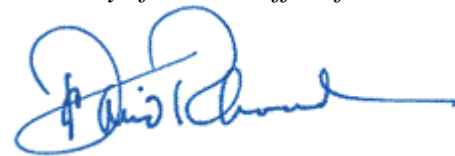

Respectfully Submitted:
